The meeting was held in the auditorium of a leading Catholic Girls School in the fashionable district of San Isidro close to the 5 star hotel where True Family were staying.

The event started on time at 6.30 pm with the singing of the Peruvian National Anthem and a prayer of invocation offered by Pastor Orestes Sanchez, a leading evangelical minister.

Police General (retired) Hector Jhon Caro, who is currently President of UPF Peru, offered some opening remarks. Rev. Trevor Edward Jones conducted the Holy Wine and Blessing Ceremonies accompanied by his wife Mrs. Faith Jones.

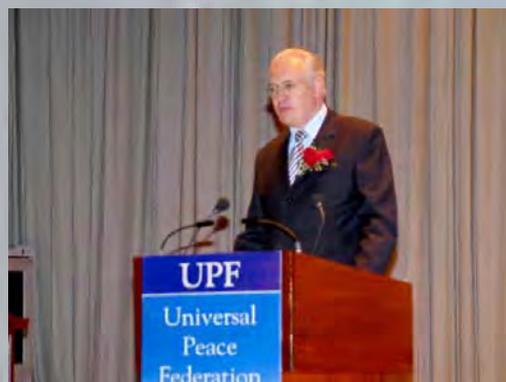

At 7.30 pm True Mother walked onto the stage welcomed by thunderous applause from the capacity audience of 1,088 guests who represented all walks of life in Peru, from the humblest directors of food kitchen projects sponsored by the Family Federation to former government ministers and leading members of Peruvian society.

True Mother's words were well received and as she concluded the audience rose from their seats to give her a standing ovation.

The evening concluded with the appointment of 12 new Ambassadors for Peace many of whom invited UPF to speak at their different institutions; among them were Rectors and deans of leading Universities, Presidents of Influential Organizations, a Surgeon and a number of local political figures. One University Dean offered to arrange a meeting of 1,400 students to hear the speech and the President of one of the wealthiest clubs in Peru similarly invited Rev. Jones to speak to his members.

The Rector of Ricardo Palma University signed an agreement with Rev. Jong Bok Hong, representing the Family Federation that involves the students of his University receiving "Pure Love" lectures in the college over a period of 5 years.

A small group of Ambassadors for Peace attended the Hun Doc Hae meeting the following morning and they were all moved to tears by True Mother's words. All of them pledged to do their best to support the work of True Parents.
