“When women interlock their fingers, those who put their right thumb on their left thumb do not want to obey husbands’ words. Those who have deep big eyes, thick lips, wide nose, and high cheekbones are like men.

It is only I that can match all humankind within 30 minutes. How? By seeing their interlocked fingers. 50% to 70% of such women (with their right thumb on top of their left thumb interlocking hands) would divorce. (Looking at the participants majority of whom are Japanese sisters) You look so greedy. Those who put their right thumb on their left thumb all have such a character. Problems would happen in their life with husbands and husbands’ families. Check it. I have checked it in the world and this is true.

You know that marriage is the most important thing in life. From now on in our church, we can look for one’s spouse according to this rule (of how one puts their thumbs in interlocking hands). Choose 72 from 120 people, choose 12 from that 72, choose one from that 12, parents will choose spouses for their children even when they are children. You’ve never thought of such a thing, have you? For example, if your daughter put her right thumb on top of her left thumb, you need to find someone who does the opposite. Then they fit each other well and she will be in charge of family matters in place of him.”

“Sunlight appears as seven colors. What is the center of those colors? (It is blue) Why? It is the color of the ocean. Is there a white color among them? Flowers with a white color are the one’s without a partner. For example, flowers of acacia are white and its trees have thorns so as to discourage anyone from climbing them. Colors of flowers decide a plants’ life.”

“True Mother has a short black line on the back of her left hand and I know what that tells about her destination. If it goes wrong, the line could be much longer.”

“Those who have every one of my speech books, raise your hands. You should burn all other assets that are not under Heaven’s name. (From the perspective of Heaven), those are the materials you have stolen. You must return those to Heaven and then 26 % will be returned to you. 25% plus 1%. This is the formula in Cheon Il Guk.”
