Safe Settlement of CIIG and the CIIG Constitution (III)

: Principles for Realizing the CIIG Visions

Principles for Realizing the Visions of CIG (Ideal World)

Realizing the Ideal World through CIG Constitution (1) : Portion of Human Responsibility, the Fall

■ Predestination (Fulfillment of God's Will, Portion of responsibility)

The Ideal world is realized through predestination (of absolute conviction and fulfillment of portion of responsibility).

- God's Will of restoring His Heaven on earth is absolute and is not subject to change (EDP, p.154)
- The realization of the ideal world is impossible unless its liberation is established centering on the accomplishment of one's portion of responsibility (CSG 4.2.1:33, 83.12.11)

■ CIG Constitution

- The citizens of CIG, Blessed families, and True Parents' family members must abide by their duties as their portion of responsibility. (Article 21/23, 25/27)

■ The Fall

The Ideal world is realized by understanding and eliminating the origin of fallen nature, sin and sinful world.

- The ideal world is a world that is not fallen (CSG p.678, 71.3.27), a world without even a trace of sin (CSG 2.5.2:11, 04.7.11)
- Heaven is a world without any sin (EDP, p.14), only children without any sin can enter the Kingdom of Heaven (EDP, p.16)

■ CIG Constitution

- The ideal of CIG was not realized due to the fall of the human ancestors (Preamble)
- Humankind has to absolutely abide by the three Heavenly Laws in order to eradicate their fallen natures and sins (Article 21)

Realizing the Ideal World through CIG Constitution (2) : Restoration

■ Restoration

We can return to the ideal world by living by the providence of restoration, the law of restoration, and the history of providence of restoration.

- The providence of restoration is a providence of returning to the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth which has fulfilled God's purpose of creation (EDP, p.96, pp.115-116, p.226)
- Human history has been seeking the ideal world (CSG 1.4.1;56, 81.11.22)
- Human history is a history of the providence of the re-creation and restoration that advances towards re-creating the world into the ideal world (PHG 4.8, p.599, 02.4.27)

■ CIG Constitution

- God has been leading the providence of restoration to fulfill the ideal of CIG which was not accomplished (Preamble)
- God has been carrying out this providence to save human beings who lost their original value which they had at the time of creation (Article 2)
- After passing through the long course of the providence of restoration, God sent the True Parents to Earth (Preamble)

Realizing the Ideal World through CIG Constitution (3) : Messiah, Rebirth

■ Messiah

Restoration is completed by Messiah and the Ideal World is possible by Messiah.

- The Messiah comes to realize the ideal world (CSG 2.2.2:5, 85.4.7), and to realize the ideal world envisioned at the time of creation (PHG 1.5, p.93, 91.4.27)
- The Messiah's mission is to transform this world into the ideal world centered on God (PHG 3.10, pp.450-451, 90.8.16).

■ CIG Constitution

- God sent True Parents on Earth as the Saviour, Messiah, Returning Lord, and True Parents of humankind (Preamble)
- True Parents are the Saviour and the Messiah of humankind (Article 26)
- All citizens of CIG have the right to become a tribal messiah (Article 20), and at the same time, must act as a tribal messiah (Article 21)
- The National Messiahs as advisors to the National leaders, shall advise inquires concerning self-governance of national units (Article 78)

■ Rebirth

Rebirth means separating oneself from the satanic lineage and being reborn into God's lineage

- The descendants of fallen human ancestors cannot enter the ideal world without being reborn and resurrected(74.6.2)
- Only when they are stripped of all their sins, including the original sin, can they be restored as the original human beings and establish the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth (EDP, p.154)

■ CIG Constitution

- True Parents carry out the work of rebirth by means of true love throughout the cosmos (Article 4)
- A Blessed family is a husband and wife, who were reborn and whose original sin was cleansed through the Marriage Blessing by the True Parents, who are the Saviour and Messiah of humankind, and their direct descendants (Article 26)

Realizing the Ideal World through CIG Constitution (4) : Resurrection, Consummation (Last Days)

■ Resurrection

Resurrection is a process through which human beings escape from the sovereignty of Satan and into that of God's. This is also a process of eliminating fallen nature and sins.

- Only the ones who are resurrected with substantial and physical bodies are accepted as substantial inheritors that can enter the Kingdom of Heaven (PHG 5.28, p.886, 02.5.21)
- For fallen human beings to enter the Kingdom of God, they first need to go through the process of resurrection (CSG 7.3.4:5, 63.5.25; p.674, p.876, 63.5.25)
- The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth is a place filled with perfect human beings who have resurrected in spirit and in body and attained the state of a Divine Spirit (EDP, p.193)

■ CIG Constitution

- True Parents carry out the work of resurrection by means of true love throughout the cosmos (Article 4)

■ Consummation (Last Days)

Consummation is concluded when the course of resurrection is completed (completed, concluded, and perfected)

- The Last Days is the period when the sinful world under Satan's sovereignty is changed to the world envisioned at the time of creation under God's sovereignty (EDP, p.123)
- The ideal world of goodness will certainly come during these final historic Last Days (CSG 8.2.4:13, 60.10.16)
- Consummation (the Last Days) is absolutely required for the realization of the ideal world (The beginning and perfection of the period of consummation)

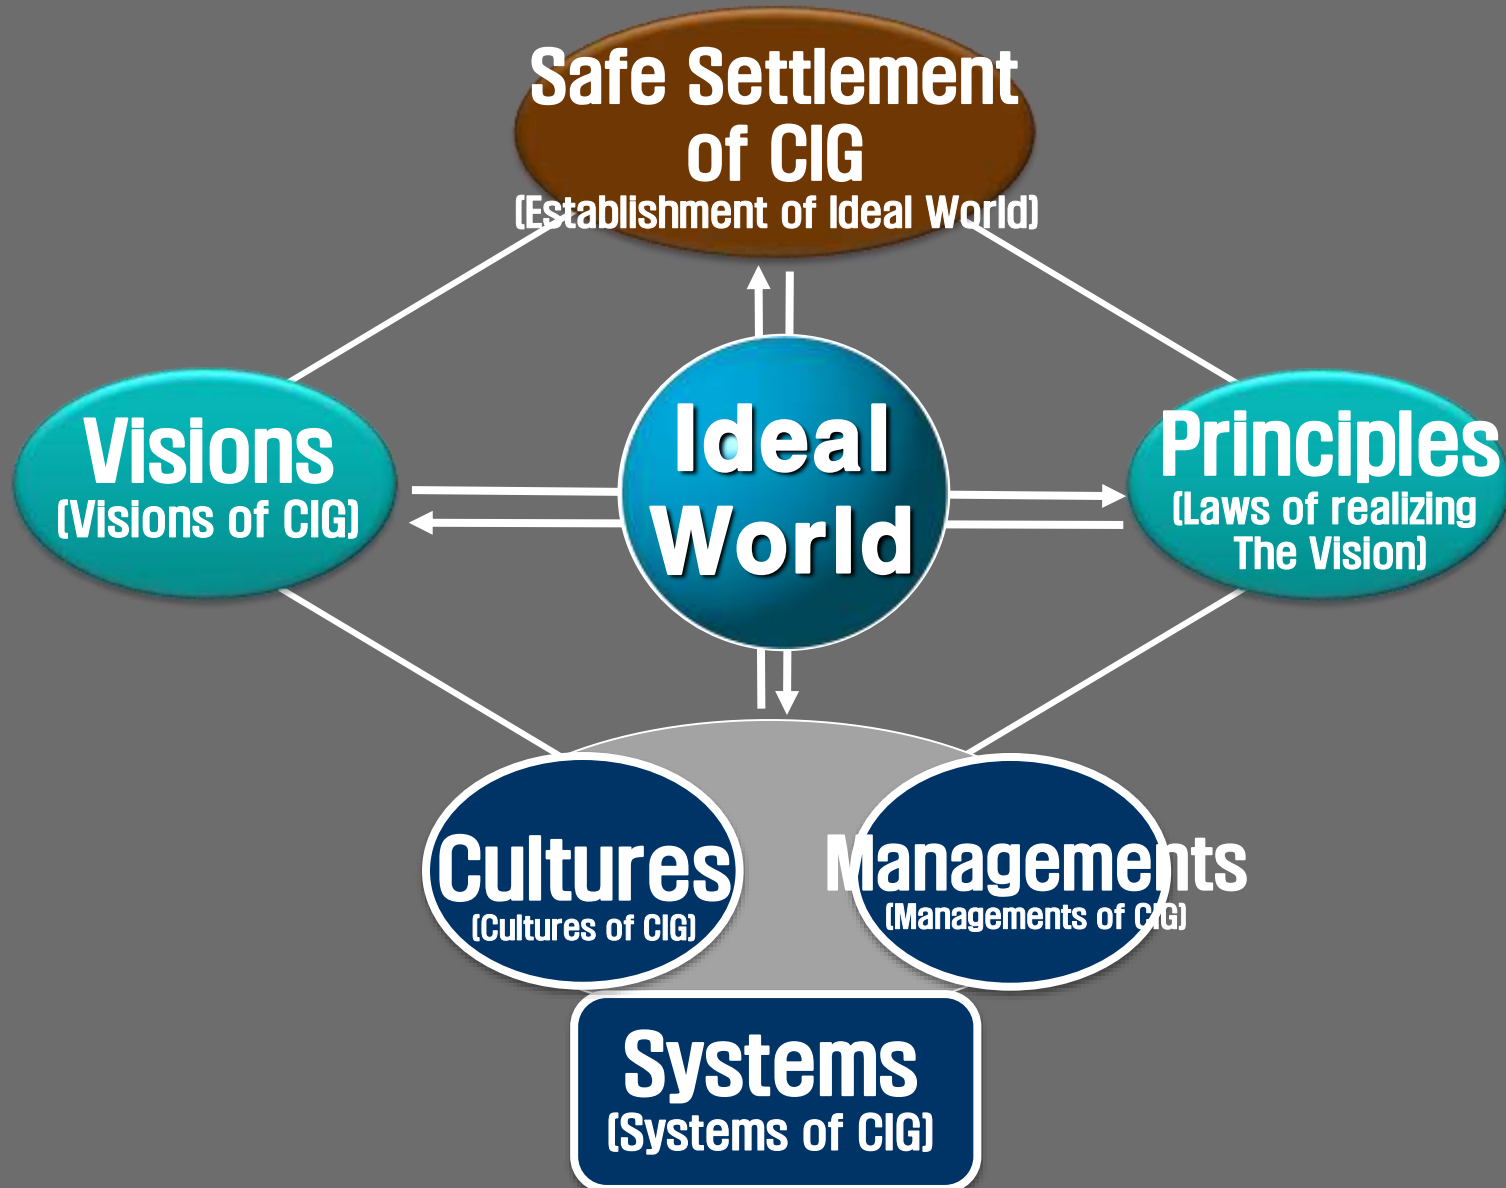

■ CIG Constitution

- The substantial CIG must be settled and perfected (Article 22/23, 40/44/69, 76/81)
